

Railroad Retirement Board

§ 260.8

§ 260.6 Time limits for issuing a hearing decision.

(a) General. The hearings officer shall make every effort to issue a decision within 45 days after the hearing is held.

(b) Submission of additional evidence. If the hearings officer requests additional evidence, he or she shall do so within 30 days after the hearing is held and he or she shall make every effort to issue the hearing decision within 45 days after the additional evidence is received and the period for comment has ended. If the claimant wishes to submit additional evidence or written statements of fact or law, the hearings officer shall make every effort to issue the hearing decision within 45 days after the written statements are received or the additional evidence is received and the period for comment has ended.

(c) Supplemental hearing. If on the basis of additional evidence the hearings officer decides a supplemental hearing is necessary, the supplemental hearing will be held within 30 days after the receipt of the additional evidence and the hearings officer shall make every effort to issue a decision within 30 days after the supplemental hearing is held.

(d) Reassignment of case to another hearings officer. If, after a hearing has been held, it is necessary to reassign a case to another hearings officer due to the unavailability of the original hearings officer (e.g., resignation, retirement, illness), the case will be promptly reassigned. The new hearings officer shall make every effort to issue a hearing decision within 30 days after the reassignment.

§ 260.7 Time limits for issuing a decision when a hearing is not held.

If a claimant waives his or her right to appear at a hearing and the hearings officer does not schedule the case for hearing, or the evidence in the record supports a favorable decision without a hearing, or a hearing is not required pursuant to § 260.5(g), the hearings officer shall make every effort to issue a decision within 90 days from the date the appeal is filed: Provided, however, that if the hearings officer requests additional evidence it shall be requested within 45 days of the filing of the appeal and the hearings officer shall make every effort to issue a decision within 30 days after the additional evidence is received and the appellant comments on the evidence, or if no comment is received after the close of the comment period.

§ 260.8 Pre-hearing case review.

(a) General. The hearings officer assigned to a case may, prior to an oral hearing, upon his or her own motion, refer the case back to the bureau of the Board which issued the initial decision for the purpose of reconsideration of that decision, where the hearings officer finds that:

(1) Additional evidence pertinent to the resolution of the issues on appeal was submitted by the appellant at the time the appeal was filed, or subsequent thereto; or

(2) Additional evidence pertinent to the resolution of the issues on appeal is available and should be procured; or

(3) There is some other indication in the record that the initial decision may be revised in a manner favorable to the appellant.

(b) Referral of case for further review by initial adjudicating unit. Where the hearings officer finds that referral of a case back to the bureau which issued the initial decision for the purpose of reconsideration of that decision would be warranted, the hearings officer shall give that bureau the reason for such referral, together with specific directions as to the handling of the case on reconsideration.

(c) Reconsideration of case by initial adjudicating unit. The bureau to which a case is referred shall promptly undertake any additional development required, and shall make a determination as to whether the initial determination may be revised in whole or in part in a manner favorable to the appellant. Upon issuance of its determination, the bureau in question shall return the case along with a copy of its decision to the hearings officer.

(d) Revision of initial decision in whole or in part. Where the bureau to which a case is referred determines to revise its initial decision in whole or in part, that bureau shall notify the appellant of such determination. If the revised determination is wholly favorable to
